"My brother has been at Aldringham Court for almost 1 year - he has been treated with dignity and wonderful care. He has Alzheimer's and is unable to speak but the nurses and carers are very kind and patient with him. They often make him laugh and he is very content. I could not ask for more."

"Friendly and attentive staff, a cheerful atmosphere and excellent, well maintained gardens which provide therapeutic help for residents."

"I am very happy with the care he is receiving and I appreciate the caring attitude towards me too. He is calm and relaxed, well groomed, clean and dressed. He has many nursing needs and these are well addressed. There is a happy atmosphere at Aldringham Court the staff greet me and talk to me and are kind to the patients."
