“Sandown Park is an excellent home, both caring and professional, and did everything possible to look after my mother’s needs. The staff are outstanding, full credit to them for managing some challenging residents with tact, dignity, courtesy and always a smile. I visited the home at various times of the day and at weekends, and the level of care was consistently high.”

“My mum has only recently been made a resident of Sandown Park and I can’t fault their care for her. My nan was also here last year. They are professional, caring, helpful and patient.”
