

The Old Vicarage

Part of the Healthcare Homes Group

Caring is at the heart of everything we do...

While being ideal for long-term residential needs, the home also maintains a respite service and offers day care to the surrounding communities.

Carers are committed to understanding personal needs and adhering to a tailored approach. A number of activities are organised to support personal interests and physical health, and residents have access to information technology while enjoying home-cooked meals.

The Old Vicarage Care Home has won over 30 national and regional awards over the last few years for their commitment to care of the elderly to back-up their reputation as one of the leading care homes in Dorset.

"All the staff are helpful and friendly. The interaction between the staff and my father has been wonderful, very supportive. I never go home after visiting worried about his welfare and have complete confidence that they will care for him to the best of their ability."

"The staff are always bright and have time for the residents. No matter how busy they are, the home is clean, bright and a happy place to be in, with lovely gardens and extensive views across the Dorset countryside. It really is a happy home."
